Full job description

Your new company

A fantastic opportunity has become available for a switched on and driven senior strategic planner working with a prestigious Sydney council initially on a 6-month contract opportunity.

Your new role

As a Senior Strategic Planner working within this diverse and highly regarded organisation, you will have the opportunity to contribute to the fantastic culture already in place and get involved in a range of niche and on-going development projects. Tasks will include but not be limited to:

- Preparing various independent assessments and working closely alongside the heritage team on the review of development control plans and the preparation of planning proposals.
- Preparation of key strategic planning reports and presentations in line with local and state government reforms.
- Provide guidance to more junior staff members across the planning team and assisting with project report reviews as required.
- Stakeholder management including liaison with clients and councils while also representing various local and state planning panels

What you'll need to succeed

You must have a relevant tertiary qualification in Urban Planning as well as relevant NSW industry experience working as a Strategic Planner. This includes at least 3-5 years in a Senior Planning position.

What you'll get in return

- Full-time (35 hours) contract opportunity plus fortnightly RDO available
- Flexible WFH/ office working environment split
- Team environment with a fun and hardworking company culture
- Competitive rates with the potential for permanency for the right candidate

What you need to do now

If you're interested in this role, click 'apply now' or forward an up-to-date copy of your CV to Finola.McCloughlin@hays.com.au or call Finola now on 0292492264.

If this job isn't quite right for you but you are looking for a new position within the planning space, please contact us for a confidential discussion on your career.
